

CURRICULUM VITAE

Francesca Moretta

Date of birth: December 23, 1982

Mail francesca.moretta@sacrocuore.it

Education:

July 2001: Diploma in Classical Studies, Lyceum “Andrea D’Oria”, Genova. Final marks: 100/100. October 2007: M.D. University of Pavia. Dissertation: “Co-infusion of mesenchymal stem cells expanded ex vivo accelerates lymphoid reconstitution and results in decreased risk of rejection of transplanted hemopoietic stem cells from an HLA haploidentical donor”. 110/110 cum laude

(Supervisor: Franco Locatelli, M.D., Professor)

February 2008: Medical Licensure (Italy)

March 2008 – April 2012: Residency in Clinical Hematology, Medical School, University of Verona, Italy.

September 2010- April 2011: Attending (part time) the Laboratory of Stem Cell Research of the University of Verona c/o the University Medical Research Laboratory (LURM), under the supervision of Mauro Krampera, M.D., Professor.

April 2012 Dissertation and Degree in Clinical Hematology. Title: Double rearrangement of IgVH genes in chronic lymphocytic leukemia. 70/70 cum laude (Supervisor: Achille Ambrosetti, M.D., Professor).

September 2012 - August 2014: clinical research Fellow at the Department of Pediatric Onco- hematology, Bambino Gesù Hospital, Rome (Director: Franco Locatelli, M.D., Professor).

November 2014 – May 2019 PhD in Biomolecular Medicine (Clinical Genomics and Proteomics) University of Verona Title: Analysis of a “novel” subset of CD34+ haematopoietic precursors in peripheral blood of patients with chronic inflammatory diseases. (Supervisor Achille Ambrosetti, M.D., Professor, Claudio Lunardi, M.D., Professor).

January 2020-October 2020 Hematology consultant in Sacro Cuore Don Calabria Hospital

Current position:

- Staff, laboratory medicine, Sacro Cuore Don Calabria Hospital, Negrar (VR): assessment of blood donors, transfusion medicine and laboratory procedures and analysis.

Other educational experiences:

2002: Internship c/o the Division of Histology, San Matteo Hospital, Pavia. 2005:

Internship c/o the Division of Hematology, San Matteo Hospital, Pavia 2006: Internship c/o the Division of Oncology, San Matteo Hospital, Pavia.

2007: Internship c/o the Division of Pediatric Onco-hematology, San Matteo Hospital, Pavia.

2012 (July-August): Observership c/o the inpatient and outpatient Leukemia Program, Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore (Supervisor: Judith Karp, M.D., Director of the Leukemia Program).

Clinical expertise Clinical Onco-Hematology both in adults and in children, with prevalent focus on HSC transplantation and management of leukemias and lymphomas.

Research Laboratory experience (limited) Cell cultures, mesenchymal stem cells, Flow Cytometry.
